

Print Access Resources Tab

National Center on Accessible Digital Educational Materials & Instruction.

<https://ncademi.org/>

At NCADEMI, “accessible” means educational technology that works for all students with disabilities. Our goal is helping schools and families improve the accessibility of digital educational materials and instruction from preschool through high school graduation.

Louis Database of Accessible Materials

<https://louis.aph.org/#/>

Louis contains information on accessible materials produced by over 60 organizations throughout the United States. These materials include educational materials in braille, large print, audio, and electronic file.

National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled

www.loc.gov/nls

NLS logo will go here.

National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled (NLS) at the Library of Congress is a free braille and talking book library service for people with temporary or permanent low vision, blindness, or a physical, perceptual, or reading disability that prevents them from using regular print materials. Through a national network of cooperating libraries, NLS circulates books and magazines in braille or audio formats, that are instantly downloadable to a